

Statue of Major General George H. Thomas at Fourteenth and Massachusetts avenue, one of best known war memorials in city.

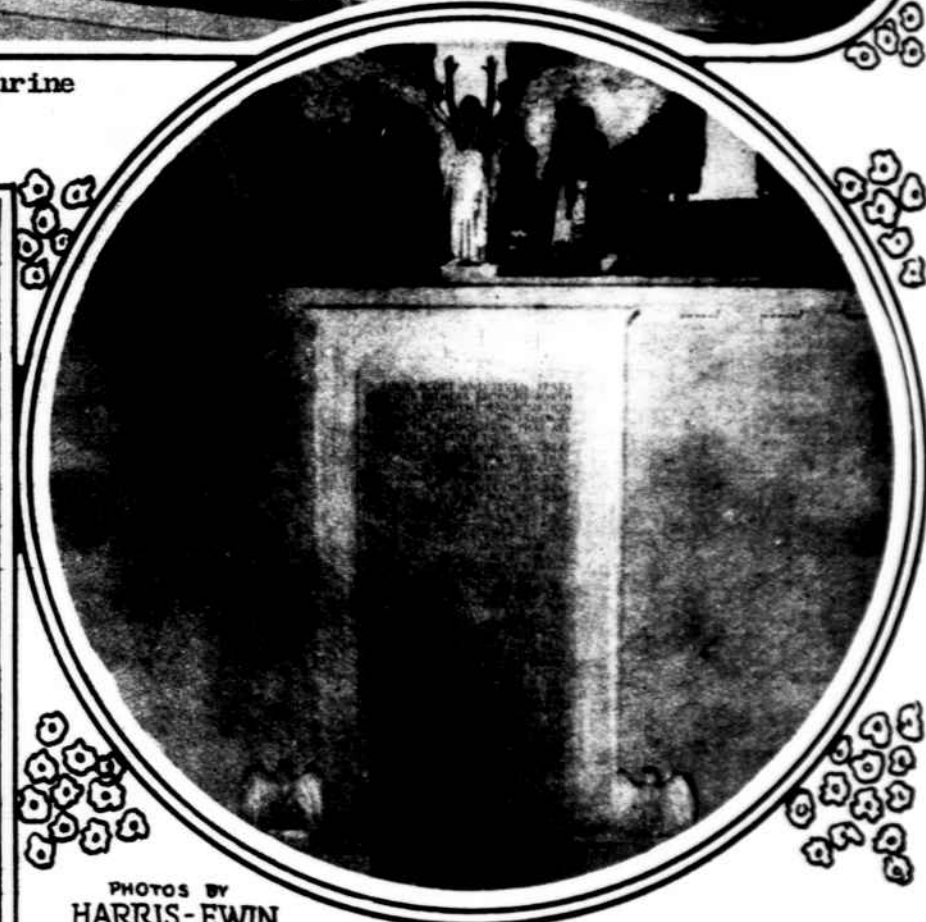

America's most majestic and beautiful shrine of patriotism, the Arlington amphitheatre, annually visited by thousands.

Statue of Maj. Gen. Winfield Scott at Scott Circle, Sixteenth and Massachusetts avenue northwest.

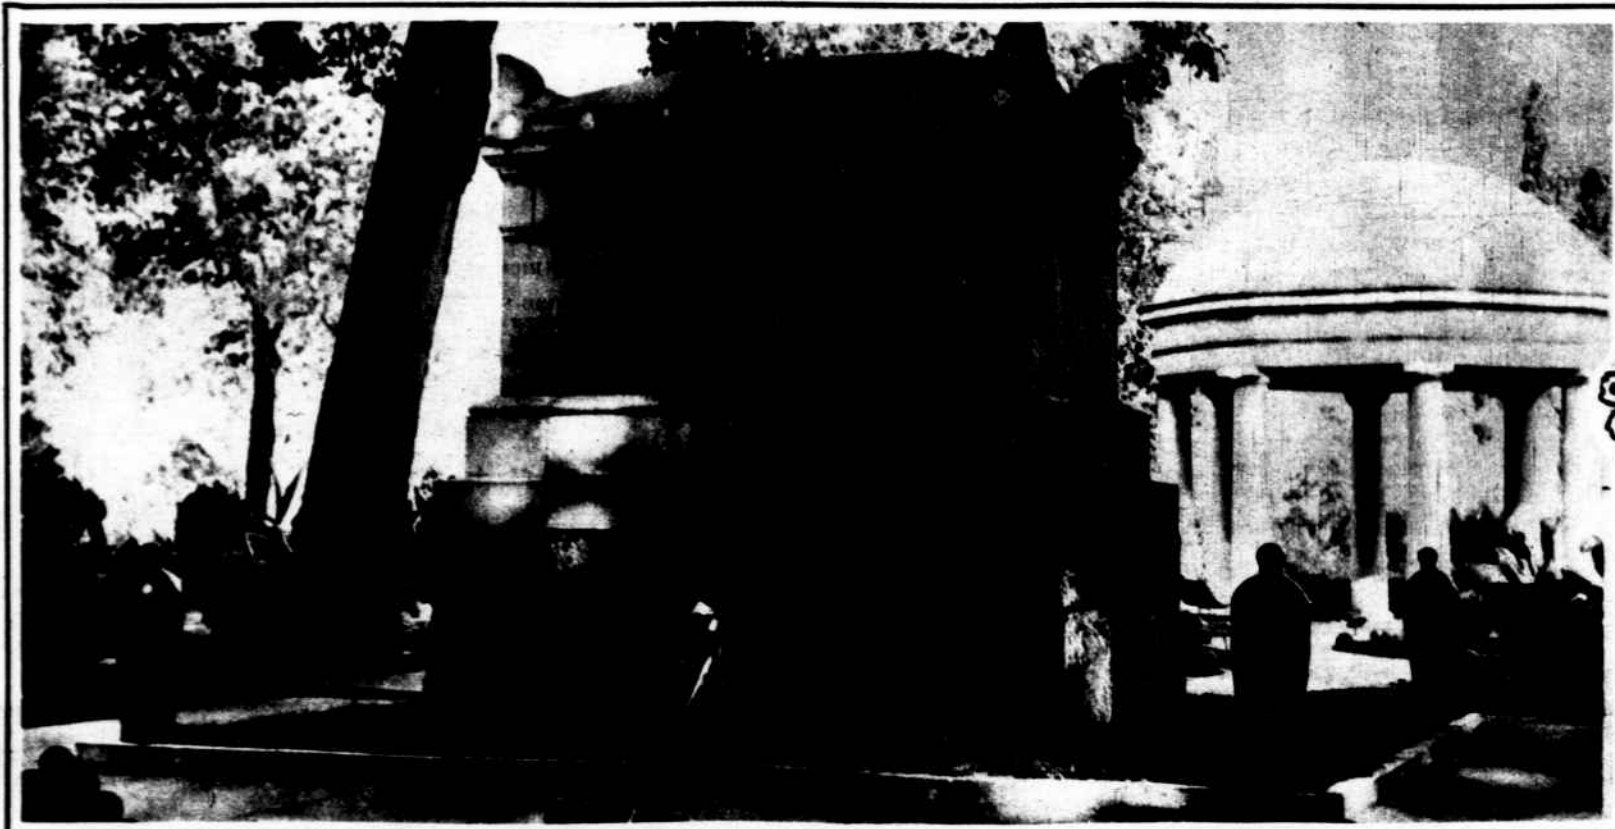

The first interior picture to be made of the Lincoln memorial, showing the Daniel Chester French statue of Lincoln.

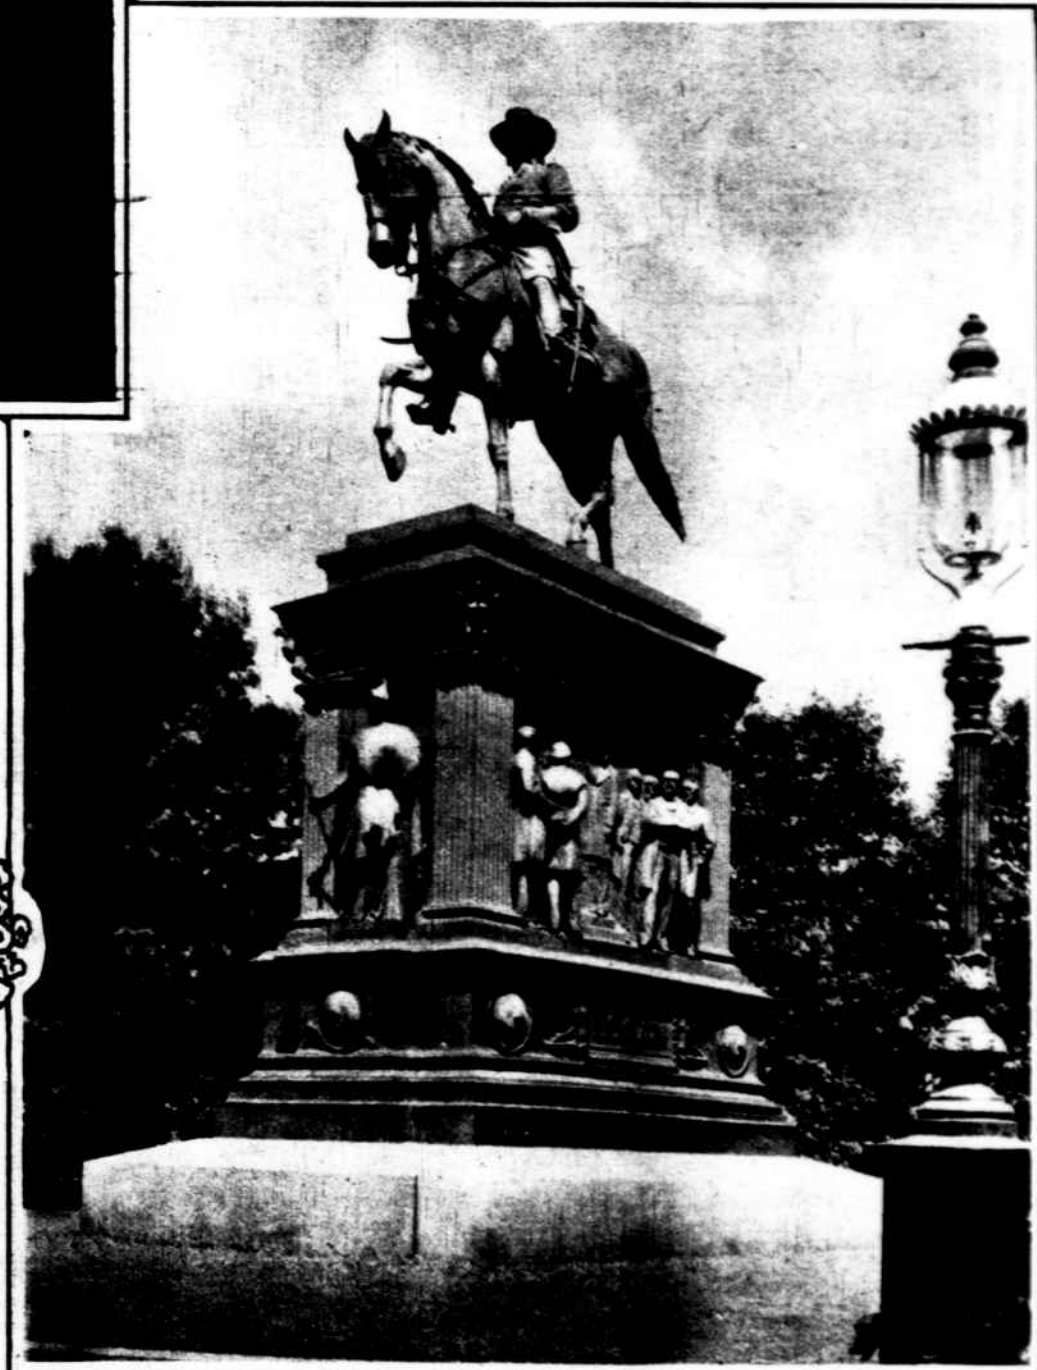

PHOTOS BY HARRIS-ERWIN

Tablet in Lincoln memorial containing text of Lincoln's famous Gettysburg address.

Memorial to unknown dead of the World War in Arlington National Cemetery.

Equestrian statue of Gen. Logan at Iowa Circle.